DRIVETRAIN

The R3 Single Speed Transmission comes with a cast aluminum case and wider gears to allow for more abuse along with a Delrin spur with slipper clutch.

The D110 includes the Hammer Transfer Case. Packed with detail, the case features a cast metal exterior and the .8 Mod widened gears for durability.

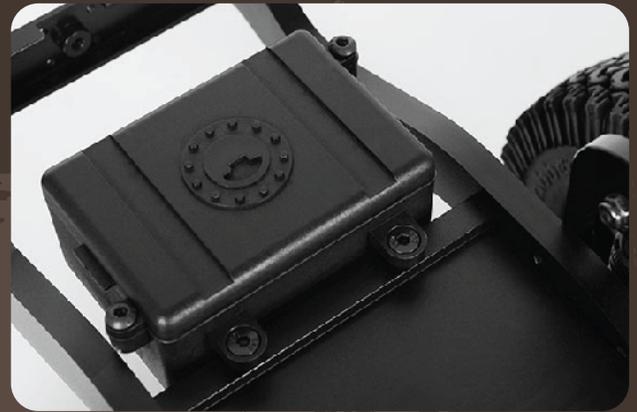

Drawing on the success of the RC4WD MOA gear sets, the D110 drivetrain has the most durable gears RC4WD has to offer so the D110 will stay on the trail, day after day.

The most scale accurate axles on the market, the RC4WD Cast Metal Axles feature innovative round knuckles, new lower mounting points and compact offset pumpkins.

The Driveshafts for the D110 Kit are a design featuring bulletproof steel universals and a high quality plastic shaft for great driveline angles and durability on the trail.

The D110 Chassis features a molded fuel cell that doubles as an electronics storage box plus an aluminum, frame-mounted electronics tray for multiple electronics mounting options.
